Gladiatore di Roma Gladiators of Rome

Synopsis

It is the age of Imperial Rome. Young Timo, an orphan of Pompeii's terrible eruption, is adopted by general Chirone and raised in the most famous Gladiators' Academy in Rome.

Unfortunately, Timo is not interested in being a gladiator. He just wants to hang out with his friends, Ciccius and Mauritius, and avoid his stepfather's bizarre training sessions at all costs. However, when Timo reunites with his childhood friend the lovely Lucilla, he decides to win her affection by training to be a Gladiator. While training, his misguided friends introduce him to a sorcerer. Soon after, he encounters a strong willed female who becomes his personal trainer. As a result, Timo transforms himself into the greatest gladiator of all times.

Language Gr. 11 & 12

Oral Communication

Extending Understanding of Texts

1.6 extend understanding of oral texts, including increasingly complex or difficult texts, by making effective connections between the ideas in them and personal knowledge, experience, and insights; other texts; and the world around them (e.g., compare and contrast the values expressed in speeches by two different historical figures; connect the issues discussed in a public forum they attended with their own and their peers' experiences)

Critical Literacy

1.8 identify and analyse the perspectives and/or biases evident in oral texts, including increasingly complex or difficult texts, and comment with growing understanding on any questions they may raise about beliefs, values, identity, and power (e.g., track the opinions of one character in a play and comment on any change that occurs; explain the point of view of a speaker on a controversial topic)

Media

Critical Literacy

1.5 identify the perspectives and/or biases evident in media texts, including increasingly complex or difficult texts, and comment on any questions they may raise about beliefs, values, identity, and power (e.g., assess the way a television sitcom or drama depicts characters from cultural or social groups that are under-represented in mainstream television; explain how the representation of body types in the advertising2 and editorial content of most popular sports and fashion magazines can affect audiences; explain how a film manipulates familiar archetypes and/or stereotypes to confirm or contradict the audience's expectations about plot or character)

Conventions and Techniques

2.2 identify conventions and/or techniques used in a variety of media forms and explain how they convey meaning and influence their audience (e.g., the use of play-by-play commentary and slow-motion replays in television sports broadcasts to clarify the action and bridge pauses in play; the use of maps, graphics, live coverage, and announcers/commentators in television weather reports to add interest to numeric data)
